Women's Day Celebration 2021

Santosh Deemed to be University Organized Women's Day Celebration on 8th March 2021 the in Maharaja Hall between 2.30 p.m.-4.00 p.m.

All the Faculty and Students of the University were invited to celebrate the event. The program started with welcome address by the Dean Academics, Santosh Medical College & Hospital and Dean Dental, Santosh Dental College & Hospital, followed by felicitation of the dignitaries of the University. The program progressed with a brilliant song sung in harmony by BDS 3rd yr students. A series of cultural events and poem recitation were performed by the students.

Department of Gynecology celebrated the entire week on International Women's Day and dedicated each day referring to common health issues faced by women in the society. The Post Graduate students of the Gynecology Department then performed a skit showcasing the taboos in the Indian family culture regarding childbirth and having kids, simultaneously providing solutions through counseling of family planning measures.

Few students (Muskan Sachdeva BDS 3rd yr & Afreen Ali BDS 3rd yr) were graced with prize distribution for essay writing competition on the title, 'Women in Leadership: Achieving an equal future in a COVID-19 world'. A powerful Nukkad Natak was presented by BDS third and final year students showcasing oppression of the women in the society. The event was well attended with approximately 150 people in the hall comprising of faculty, non-teaching staff and students.

The program was well appreciated and concluded with a vote of thanks and small tea and snack session.
